The Literacy Programme at Nangdala Tea Garden was a resounding success, achieving its objectives of imparting basic literacy skills and spreading awareness about education. NSS Unit II, Birpara College, recommends the following for future initiatives:

1. Organizing follow-up sessions to ensure sustained learning among participants.
2. Developing a long-term partnership with local schools to provide continued support.
3. Expanding the programme to other underserved areas.

The event reaffirmed the role of education as a tool for empowerment and underscored the importance of collective efforts in addressing societal challenges.
