SAPLINGS PLANTATION PROGRAMME AT RANGALIBAZNA

Under NSS Outreach Programme

Organized by: NSS Unit I, Birpara College

Date: 11/01/2023

No of Volunteers Participated: 15

Introduction

The "Saplings Plantation Programme" was organized by NSS Unit I, Birpara College, on January 11, 2023, in Rangalibazna, Birpara. The event aimed to promote environmental sustainability, create awareness among students about the importance of afforestation, and encourage societal responsibility for nature conservation.

2. Objectives

- To enhance environmental awareness among students and the community.
- To contribute to the green cover of the region.
- To instill a sense of responsibility toward sustainable development among volunteers and the community.
- To create a ripple effect, inspiring the community to adopt eco-friendly practices.

3. Event Highlights

- Planning and Preparation: The event was preceded by a preparatory session to educate the volunteers on the types of saplings to be planted, their benefits, and plantation techniques.

- Limited resources for post-plantation care.
- Need for sustained efforts to ensure sapling survival and growth.

6. Recommendations

- Periodic follow-ups by volunteers to monitor sapling growth and survival.
- Collaboration with local authorities for better maintenance of planted areas.
- Organize similar initiatives in other regions to expand the impact.

7. Conclusion

The "Saplings Plantation Programme" was a successful initiative that not only met its objectives but also created a lasting impact on students, the institution, and the society. NSS Unit I, Birpara College, has once again demonstrated its commitment to fostering environmental stewardship and social responsibility. The efforts of the 15 dedicated volunteers and the enthusiastic participation of the local community were instrumental in making this event a resounding success.
