- Increased Literacy Awareness: Over 50 families were educated about the importance of literacy and motivated to send their children to school.
- Resource Accessibility: The community received information on local educational resources and schemes for underprivileged families.
- Inspiration for Change: Testimonials and interactive sessions inspired adults and children to pursue education despite challenges.

Conclusion

The Literacy Awareness Programme at Islamabad was a significant success, positively impacting students, the institution, and the community. The event not only raised awareness about the importance of literacy but also fostered a sense of responsibility among NSS volunteers to work toward societal development. Moving forward, similar programmes and follow-up activities should be conducted to sustain the momentum created by this initiative.
