DOOR TO DOOR MASK DISTRIBUTION PROGRAMME AT SUBHASHPALLY AND BIRBITY AREA

Under NSS Outreach Programme

Organized by: NSS Unit II, Birpara College

Date: 10/05/2020

No of Volunteers Participated: 8

Introduction:

One of the most effective way to prevent the spread of the COVID-19 virus is by wearing masks. However, many people lack access to masks or some people did not wish to wear mask, putting them at a higher risk of infection. To address this , the National Service Scheme (NSS) of Birpara College organized door to door mask distribution Programme at Subhashpally and Birbity area of alipurduar District on 10th may ,2020. This programme aimed to provide free masks to those in need, promoting healthy, safety and well-being in our communities.

Activities Conducted

- 1. Door to door distribution : NSS unit II volunteers distributed masks to the residents of subhashpally and Birbity and they ensured safe distancing and hygiene practices.
- 2. Mask Demonstration : Volunteers demonstrated the proper techniques of mask wearing to the residents of subhashpally and birbity area of alipurduar district.
- 3. Community interaction : Volunteers interacted with residents of the community and they provided emotional support and gathered feedback from them.
