

Celebrating International literacy Day

8th September, 2022

Department of Sociology

Birpara College

Department of Sociology, Birpara College organized an event to celebrate International Literacy Day on 8th September, 2022. Students of different departments as well as students of Sociology 3rd and 5th semester participated in this program. The professors and students of the department explained the importance of celebrating this day to the students. Moreover, students celebrate this day by actively participating in various cultural events, performing folk songs and dances.