

Programme Outcome

English Honours/Major:

After completing the course, the students are expected to:

1. Have a comprehensive understanding of the evolution of English literature in Britain and India and place it in context of literatures in other languages from around the world.
2. Develop critical thinking through their initiation into the different ways of looking at and thinking about the world
3. Become aware of existential concerns such as environmental sustainability and gender equity